1. INTRODUCTION

Dear Reader,

This brochure aims to accompany you on the journey of the Milano Cortina 2026 Cultural Olympiad: a rich and vibrant mosaic of exhibitions, performances, meetings, talks, workshops and projects taking place throughout Italy and beyond national borders. An itinerary that showcases the values of Olympism and Paralympism through the living and engaging language of culture.

Opening this journey will be the words of Giovanni Malagò, President of Fondazione Milano Cortina 2026, Andrea Varnier, CEO of the Fondazione, and Andrea Abodi, Minister for Sport and Youth. This will then be followed by a warm welcome from our Director, Domenico De Maio, who through his perspective will guide you into the deeper spirit of the Cultural Olympiad. We wanted to give a voice to the institutions that have supported this path. These pages bring together their initiatives and projects, outlining a path built together, step by step. A collective narrative that celebrates those who have embodied Olympic and Paralympic values with strength, bringing them to life through art and culture and allowing them to live at the heart of their communities.

Finally, closing the brochure, you will find a general calendar designed to accompany you in discovering all the initiatives, enjoying them fully and staying constantly informed about what is happening around you. A complete itinerary, organised geographically in terms of the host areas – the Lombardy Region, Milano, the Veneto Region, Cortina d’Ampezzo, the Autonomous Provinces of Bolzano and Trento.

Welcoming you in each host area will be messages from its representatives, whose passion and support have helped transform this programme into a shared and vibrant collective endeavour.

This publication has been conceived as an orientation tool for the period before, during and after the Olympic and Paralympic Games, as well as a collective narrative. Culture, in all its forms, takes centre stage in an Olympiad that looks to the future, celebrating the coming together of host areas, communities, sport and creativity.

We wish you an enjoyable read and a rewarding journey through the Cultural Olympiad!

1. INTRODUCTION

Andrea Abodi

MINISTER FOR SPORT AND YOUTH

The Cultural Olympiad, an engaging and stimulating expression of the values and content of the Olympic and Paralympic Games through the wide spectrum of articulated artistic expressions and forms, represents a compelling opportunity to promote and share this universal event, which is fulfilled through the fourth element of the Olympic motto: communiter, together, from the Latin “cum munus”, reciprocal gift. The partnership between “Sport and Culture”, with their respective universal languages, will find its fullest expression in the programme of the Cultural Olympiad. It will accompany us on the journey towards the Games that Italy will host, reaching and engaging the entire nation, starting with younger generations, and will stand as one of the most precious legacies that the Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games Milano Cortina 2026 will leave behind, all the more so at a time such as this, so deeply in need of “cum munus” and diplomacy.

PRESIDENT OF FONDAZIONE
MILANO CORTINA 2026

Sport, education and culture are the cornerstones on which Olympism and the Olympic Charter are founded. Since the launch of the Cultural Olympiad in January 2024, we have already seen how this initiative has been able to weave together sport and the arts, body and mind, in a living and tangible dialogue. Museums, galleries and cultural institutions have embraced the project with enthusiasm, helping to spread a message of inclusion and inspiration that reflects the spirit of the Games. As Italians, as members of the Olympic and Paralympic family and as organisers of the Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games Milano Cortina 2026, we strongly feel the responsibility to continue along this path and to enhance, through this prestigious and wide ranging programme, the cultural heritage that accompanies the journey towards the Closing Ceremony of the 2026 Paralympic Games.

1. INTRODUCTION

Andrea Varnier

CEO OF FONDAZIONE
MILANO CORTINA 2026

The bond between the Olympic Games and culture has its roots in the Ancient Games and extends across the centuries to the present day. Pierre de Coubertin, founder of the Modern Games, emphasised the importance of this relationship between athletes, writers and artists, identifying it as a source of the enduring prestige of the Games. Today, at Milano Cortina 2026, this symbolic link takes shape in concrete experiences. The Cultural Olympiad has already given rise to projects that tell the story of the passion for art and culture that has made Italy great, as well as the creative and vibrant energy that animates the contemporary spirit of our country. The programme we present bears witness to this journey: a mosaic of initiatives that brings together host areas, institutions and communities, projecting Italy towards the future through the strength of its tradition and its capacity for innovation.

EDUCATION AND CULTURE DIRECTOR
OF FONDAZIONE MILANO CORTINA 2026

Welcome to the Milano Cortina 2026 Cultural Olympiad programme. This project originates from the desire to give visibility to the many cultural initiatives that have animated and will continue to accompany the country on its journey towards the Games, creating an atmosphere of celebration and connection between people. This document also reflects the collective commitment of stakeholders and the cultural community, who have been actively involved in this participatory programme since 2024. For our cultural ecosystem, Milano Cortina 2026 represents more than a competition. It marks a new chapter in the history of the Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games. For the first time, the events will take place across a widespread host area extending over more than 22,000 km² across the Lombardy Region, the Veneto Region and the Autonomous Provinces of Trento and Bolzano. This edition brings together cities and mountains, tradition and innovation, highlighting the beauty and richness of the historical and artistic heritage. Fondazione Milano Cortina 2026 has established a Cultural Directorate with the aim of encouraging the creation of a shared identity among the host areas involved and enhancing the national cultural heritage. It is an honour for me to present the initiatives and the programme of the Milano Cortina 2026 Cultural Olympiad. We hope to encourage you, readers, to explore the initiatives on offer and to be inspired and enriched by them.

THE CULTURAL OLYMPIAD

The Milano Cortina 2026 Cultural Olympiad is the major multidisciplinary programme that accompanies the Games, carrying Olympic and Paralympic values beyond the competition venues into the heart of cities, communities and host areas. With the claim “Culture is Movement”, the initiative presents a living culture, capable of activating people and places, generating change and building lasting legacies. Movement is understood not only as physical action, but as a cultural and social impulse, as Olympic and Paralympic energy that transforms and unites. The programme places inclusion, dialogue between generations, the appreciation of differences and collective wellbeing at its core, because access to culture is a tool for active citizenship and social cohesion.

THE MAIN OBJECTIVES OF THE CULTURAL OLYMPIAD

- Engage and inspire people and communities through a widespread calendar of initiatives;
- Build bridges between generations and promote access to culture for younger people;
- Bring together different languages such as sport, art, culture and heritage, with initiatives that enhance movement and outdoor activities;
- Promote the universal values of the Olympic and Paralympic Movement: respect, courage, friendship, inclusion and peace;
- Make culture a leading force, moving alongside sport, on the journey towards Milano Cortina 2026.

THE GUIDING PRINCIPLES

The Cultural Olympiad takes shape from the founding values of the Olympic Movement – excellence, respect and friendship, and of the Paralympic Movement – courage, determination, equality and inspiration, together with broader universal values of peace, inclusion, unity in diversity, resilience, care and fairness.

These principles are the lens through which the programme seeks to view the world, to tell its story and to represent it, interpreting them in light of the challenges of the contemporary world: from respect for the environment to sustainability to human rights.

Through art, culture and sport, these values are transformed into concrete experiences. They create opportunities capable of generating new social connections and encouraging responsible and sustainable tourism that is attentive to the country's tangible and intangible heritage. By promoting widespread participation, the programme offers artists, curators, designers and cultural organisations the opportunity to become protagonists in a shared programme.

© Fondazione Milano Cortina 2026

Five guiding principles shape the development of the Cultural Olympiad:

- 1. Sport between history, art and culture. Artistic and cultural initiatives that tell the story of, highlight and promote sporting activities, athletes, and the history and values of the Olympic and Paralympic Games.
- 2. Active communities. Initiatives that connect different communities with each other and within themselves, using active participation to develop personal talent, individual and collective qualities, and the cultural, educational and social potential of the country.
- 3. Diversity, empowerment and inclusion. Initiatives that promote and enhance diversity as an element of enrichment and dialogue, helping to build an inclusive and respectful society. Indicative topics: women's empowerment, disability, gender and cultural diversity.

- 4. Territories and lifestyles. Cultural initiatives delivered outdoors, in nature and across public spaces, both urban and mountain settings, that encourage healthy lifestyles and promote access to culture, while maintaining a sustainable and environmentally respectful approach and mindful ways of engaging with activities.
- 5. Peace. Initiatives with a social focus that promote peace, inclusion and integration among peoples and communities.

THE CULTURAL OLYMPIAD IN HISTORY

The relationship between the Olympics and culture has ancient roots. In Ancient Greece, at the Games of Olympia, poets, writers and artists took their place alongside sporting competitions, in a dialogue that brought together physical exercise, creativity and civic spirit.

This tradition inspired Pierre de Coubertin, founder of the modern Olympic Games, who in his Mémoires Olympiques recognised the alliance between sport and the arts as one of the sources of the prestige and vitality of the Games. A vision that, as early as 1906, led him at the Olympic Congress in Paris to propose the union of sporting and artistic competitions, arguing that the complete athlete was not defined solely by physical strength, but also by creative spirit and cultural sensitivity.

The idea took shape in Stockholm 1912, with competitions in painting, sculpture, architecture, literature and music, awarded medals on an equal footing with sporting disciplines. De Coubertin himself, under a pseudonym, won a medal for literature. Difficulties linked to the participation of professional artists, which conflicted with the Olympic ideal of amateurism, and the complexity of objectively evaluating artistic works led to the end of the artistic competitions in 1948.

The cultural dimension, however, did not disappear. In the 1980s, the IOC officially established the Cultural Olympiad as a parallel and mandatory programme, designed to enhance host areas, promote dialogue between cultures and make the Games an experience that is not only sporting, but also creative and inclusive.

Barbara Wagner in 1960 ©Zardini

From Barcelona 1992 onwards, the Cultural Olympiad has become a permanent part of the Games programme, taking on different forms in each edition. London 2012 and Tokyo 2020 marked significant milestones, with projects capable of enhancing host areas and engaging communities through innovative and participatory approaches.

Milano Cortina 2026 builds on this legacy and renews it, introducing a widespread and inclusive vision. Not only host cities, but also urban, mountain and peripheral areas along the Alpine arc. Participation in the programme takes place through calls for expressions of interest, encouraging a bottom-up, open and participatory model that involves cultural institutions, schools, associations and artists.

At its core is the concept of legacy, understood as a cultural and social heritage intended to endure beyond the Games.

THE INITIATIVES OF THE CULTURAL OLYMPIAD

From 2024 to the present, the programme of the Milano Cortina 2026 Cultural Olympiad has been characterised by iconic initiatives celebrating Olympic and Paralympic values. This section brings together a significant selection of events that have energised our cultural programme, along with others currently in development that will accompany the period of the Games.

These projects highlight the synergy between host areas, the multidisciplinary nature of the activities and collaborations with the Olympic Museum. Founded on 23 June 1993 and located in Lausanne, Switzerland, the Olympic Museum houses the largest and most comprehensive Olympic collection in the world. With a remarkable collection of more than 90,000 iconic objects, 900,000 images and 38,000 books and films, the museum is the custodian of our Olympic heritage.

ART POSTERS OLYMPICS AND PARALYMPICS

JUNE 2025 – MARCH 2026, TRIENNALE, MILANO

The Olympic and Paralympic Art Posters are not simply posters. They are works of art that convey the spirit of the Games through the creative vision of a new generation of artists. The result of the prestigious collaboration between Triennale Milano, the International Olympic Committee (IOC) and the International Paralympic Committee (IPC), these posters celebrate the essence, energy and values of the Winter Games with a unique visual power.

On 18 June 2025, the collection was officially unveiled. It comprises ten posters, five Olympic and five Paralympic, created by ten young talents invited to interpret the value of the Winter Games through their art. An iconic project that brings together sport and art, transforming each poster into a visual anthem to the Games, capable of moving, inspiring and leaving a lasting mark.

The complete series of Art Posters can be admired on display at Triennale Milano. An unmissable opportunity to be carried away by the expressive power of sport as seen through the eyes of art.

Silver Peaks

BEATRICE ALICI

The work depicts a snow-covered landscape of the Venetian Pre-Alps, beneath a leaden sky in silver leaf. Three figures emerge as symbols: a figure skater raises the Olympic torch in gold and copper, alongside a skier and a hockey player captured in dynamic poses. Between the human body and the vastness of nature, an inner and ritual narrative takes shape, in which precious metals evoke the Olympic medal table and sport returns as something sacred and universal.

Torch

MARTINA CASSATELLA

In the work by Martina Cassatella, two intertwined hands transform into a flame, recalling the Olympic torch and symbolising unity and community. The hands, archetypes of communication, overcome every barrier, while the fire becomes shared light, warmth and peace. The flame, a metaphor of energy and transformation, brings together sport and culture as renewing forces within society. With its warm tones, the work celebrates a "luminous winter", in which human gesture becomes an announcement of universal hope.

© Fondazione Milano Cortina 2026

Untitled (snowdrops)

ROBERTO DE PINTO

Roberto de Pinto draws inspiration from the snowdrop, a flower capable of blooming through snow and ice to announce spring. Its apparent fragility instead reveals surprising strength and becomes a metaphor for the Paralympic athlete. Both overcome limits that seem insurmountable, standing as symbols of resilience and courage. The work celebrates the ability to be reborn and to open up new possibilities, evoking a future of hope. The phrase "Cracking limits just like snowdrops crack cold ice" conveys the essence of an inner and universal challenge.

© Fondazione Milano Cortina 2026

Together We Play, Together We Transform

ANDREA FONTANARI

The work by Andrea Fontanari reflects on the bond between art and sport, transforming an athletic gesture into a symbol of solidarity, respect and inclusivity. Two cross-country skiers, one supporting the other at the finish line, become a universal metaphor of shared strength. The artist draws inspiration from an episode at the Doha 2019 World Championships, when Braima Suncar Dabo helped Jonathan Busby complete the race, embodying the spirit of fair play. Translated into Paralympic cross-country skiing, the gesture recalls the mountains of Trentino and invites us to rediscover empathy and altruism.

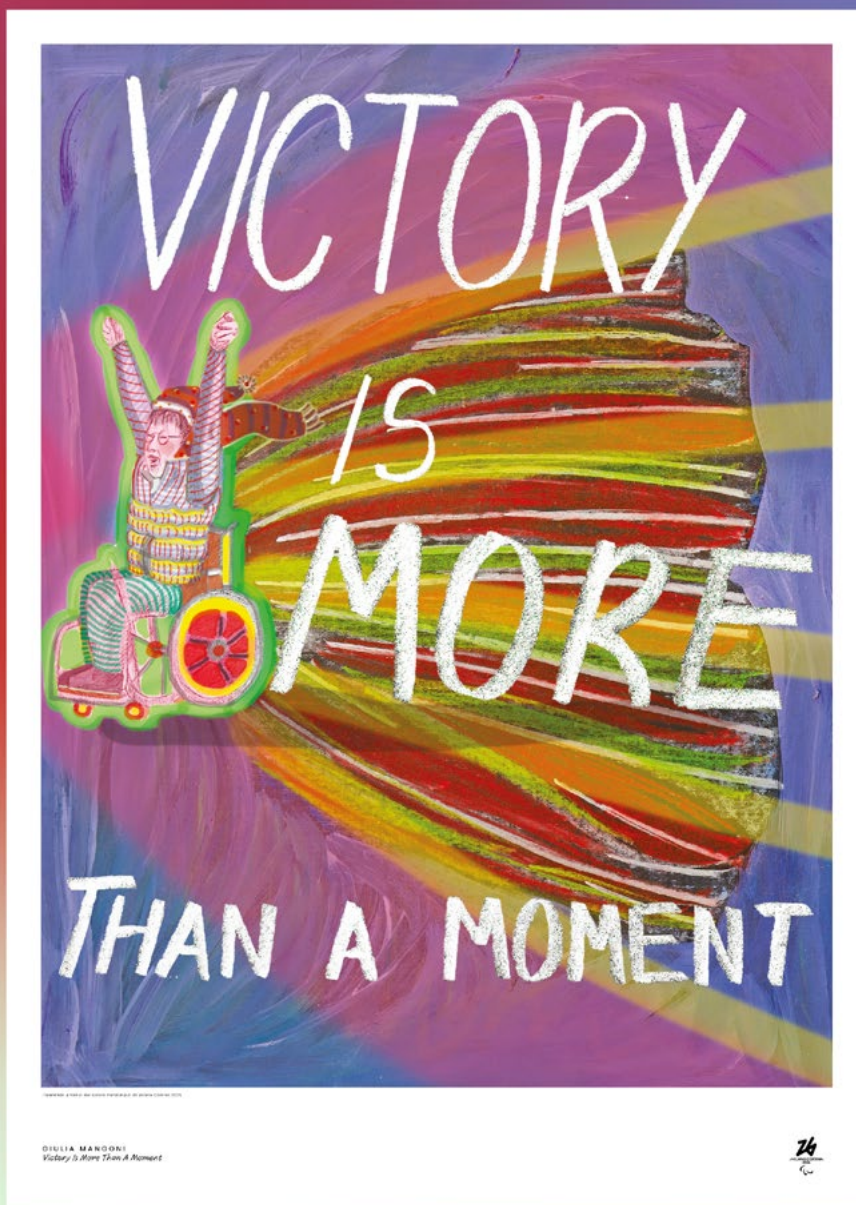

© Fondazione Milano Cortina 2026

GIORGIA GARZILLI

The work by Giorgia Garzilli offers a light-hearted and playful vision of the Olympic imagination. An ice cream cone with the five rings as colourful flavours becomes a symbol of sharing and joy. Created using graphite and coloured pencils, it originates from a childhood memory, a cone shaped toy that launched a small ball to signal the start of an improvised race. That gesture becomes a metaphor for the beginning of the Games and, by bringing together personal memory and universal symbols, celebrates sport as a collective celebration.

© Fondazione Milano Cortina 2026

Victory is more than a moment

GIULIA MANGONI

The work celebrates victory as the culmination of competition, placing it within a broader narrative shaped by discipline, resilience and the quiet moments that make its peak possible. Created from hand-drawn sketches using pastels, watercolours and cut paper, later digitised, it depicts figures in motion that evoke energy and speed, while the text underscores the message that victory is the visible outcome of an inner and collective journey. Inspired by Paralympic disciplines, it celebrates shared and universal achievement, bringing athletes together beyond all differences.

© Fondazione Milano Cortina 2026

Untitled

ARONNE PLEUTERI

With an ironic tone, Aronne Pleuteri explores movement as an existential force. The work emerges from a hybrid process involving digital drawing in Paint, ink jet printing on glossy paper and pictorial interventions using pencils, chalk, spray paint, oil and markers. Stylised, geometric figures, inspired by Pinocchio and low-fi YouTube animations, form a grid that bursts into vivid colours. The rapid and nervous pictorial gesture frees bodies from convention, transforming them into carriers of collective energy, vitality and joyful action, celebrating non-conforming humanity.

© Fondazione Milano Cortina 2026

The Mountain

MADDALENA TESSER

In The Mountain, Maddalena Tesser merges body and landscape in a poetic metamorphosis that tells the story of the connection between human beings, nature and sporting gesture. A reclining female figure transforms into the outline of a mountain, with hair becoming ski slopes and the head defining the ridge line. In the background, Monte Cristallo emerges and the Dolomites appear with heightened clarity. The five Olympic colours compose the luminosity of a shared sporting universe, evoking peace, harmony and awareness between memory and dream.

© Fondazione Milano Cortina 2026

The Oasis of Play

FLAMINIA VERONESI

In the work by Flaminia Veronesi, sport, childhood and imagination create a dreamlike vision that celebrates the formative value of play. A young figure dreams while immersed in a soap bubble, fragile yet powerful, as a dragon emerges within it, an evocation of Visconti's biscione and a symbol of challenge. The Dolomites of Cortina rise along the dragon's back. Sport becomes a creative ritual, with the athlete as both hero and player suspended between rules and freedom, and each discipline becoming a bubble of joy, a bridge between limitation and possibility.

© Fondazione Milano Cortina 2026

You Love

CLARA WOODS

The work by Clara Woods, characterised by vibrant colours, conveys the spirit of winter sports through two symbolic figures. Sara rides a snowboard, while Nina falls but gets back up again, embodying perseverance. The “healing snow” symbolises hope and renewal, while elements such as the phrase “Love You & You Love” and a winter flower amplify resilience and love. Woods celebrates inclusion and diversity, recalling unique talents to be shared, and transforms falls, mutual support and getting back up into an anthem to the strength and beauty of sport and of life.

OCTOBER 2025 – MARCH 2026, TRIENNALE, MILANO

The Iconic Posters, a flagship project of the Cultural Olympiad, are the official posters of the Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games and represent one of the most emblematic expressions of the dialogue between art and sport. Recognised by the International Olympic Committee (IOC) and the International Paralympic Committee (IPC) as cultural symbols, they encapsulate the spirit and vision of the host areas and communities that make the extraordinary Olympic and Paralympic adventure possible.

Created by Olimpia Zagnoli and Carolina Altavilla, the two posters fulfil an institutional role while promoting the visual identity of this edition of the Games. They serve as the official image of the Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games Milano Cortina 2026. The Olympic and Paralympic posters celebrate the deep connection between sport, host areas and communities, adopting a contemporary and inclusive language.

Drawing inspiration from pop culture and narrative imagery, the two works capture the vitality of the Winter Games with freshness and energy, celebrating innovation and the creativity of contemporary Italian design. The Milano Cortina 2026 Iconic Posters are on display until 31 March 2026 and copies can be purchased at the Triennale bookshop, on the licensee's website (www.oneart.fr) and via the official e-commerce platform (Olympic Shop).

FINO ALL'ALBA. THE OFFICIAL ANTHEM OF MILANO CORTINA 2026

ANNOUNCED ON 5 MARCH 2022 AT THE SANREMO MUSIC FESTIVAL – ARISTON

On the occasion of the Sanremo Music Festival 2022, Italy selected the new official anthem of the Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games Milano Cortina 2026: Fino all'alba. Announced on 5 March on the Ariston stage by the Games Ambassador Amadeus and performed by the intense voice of Arisa, it established itself as the soundtrack that will accompany the country through to 2026.

The song stems from the enthusiasm and talent of two young musicians from the La Cittadina youth music group from Seveso, Francesco Marrone and Giulio Gianni. The La Cittadina youth music group, founded in 1881 in Seveso in the province of Monza e Brianza, was created as a community-based, popular project and is regarded as a true “school of life”.

The selection process for the anthem was a genuine collective journey. Promoted in collaboration with the Ministry of Culture and the Ministry of University and Research, the competition involved civilian and military bands, choirs and conservatoires from across Italy, inviting them to compose original pieces inspired by Olympic and Paralympic values. Artistic direction by Maestro Peppe Vessicchio guided the selection of the finalists, leading to the victory of Fino all'alba, which won over the public with 72% of the votes, surpassing the competing entry Un po' più in là by Veronica Gori and colleagues.

PORTELLO METRO STATION (M5 LINE), MILAN

UNTIL 30 MARCH 2026

Located next to the Main Press Centre of Milano Cortina 2026, Portello metro station has been transformed into a cultural hub for the city. The entire station hosts Fundamentals, an immersive artistic installation. Focusing on the two disciplines hosted in Milan—ice hockey and the skating sports (figure skating, speed skating, and short track)—the project guides visitors through the rules, key figures, and symbolic moments that have shaped Olympic ice sports over the past century.

LE GALLERIE, TRENTO – TRENTINO HISTORICAL MUSEUM FOUNDATION

FEBRUARY 2024 – DECEMBER 2026

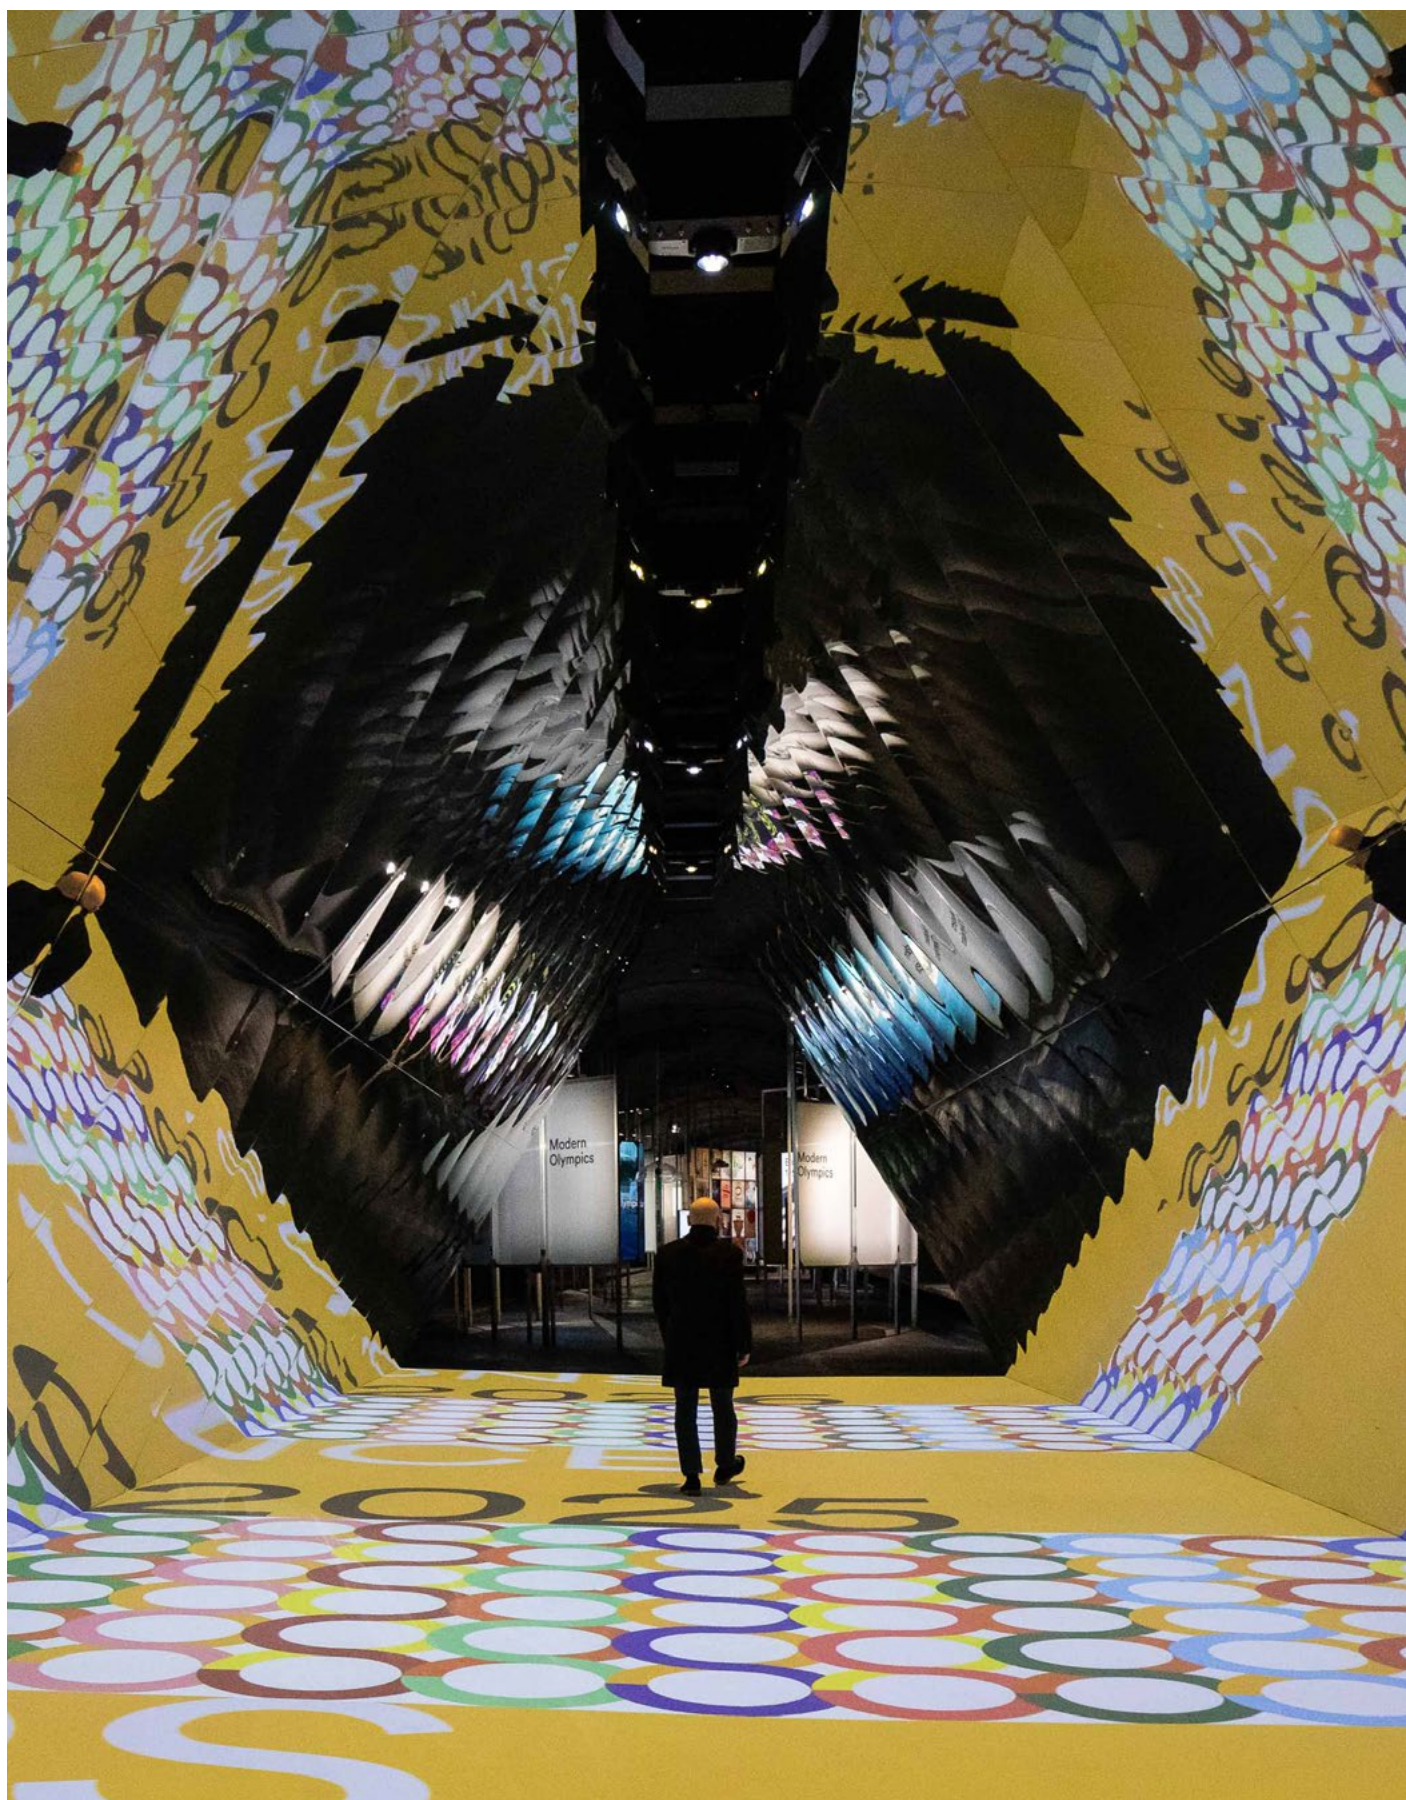

Anelli di Congiunzione is a three-year exhibition programme that accompanies the Trentino area on its journey towards the Games, through three unique events for sports enthusiasts.

Held at Le Gallerie in Trento, two former road tunnels that have been converted into exhibition spaces, each year, the exhibition explores a theme linked to the evolution of the Olympic Games. Records (2024), is dedicated to measurement, records and the transformation of athletes' bodies. Performance (2025) focuses on technique and innovation, from sporting prostheses to ski and bobsleigh technologies. Competition (2026) explores the subjective experiences of athletes.

The exhibition weaves together historical documents, images and large-scale projections with immersive installations and interactive tools such as simulators, virtual reality and multimedia walls.

The project offers an original perspective on the meaning of the past, present and future Olympic and Paralympic Games, highlighting the meeting of sport, culture and territory.

Stemming from a reuse project involving two former road tunnels, the two galleries, "Bianca", dedicated to reflection, and "Nera", dedicated to emotion, form an accessible and engaging environment capable of blending memory and innovation.

MILANO'S WEEKS DESIGN AND FASHION WEEK

MILANO&PARTNERS

MILANO 2025 – 2026

During the year preceding the Milano Cortina 2026 Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games, the city seized the opportunities offered by Milano's major cultural weeks, Fashion Week and Design Week, to engage citizens in the lead up to the Games and strengthen the link between culture and sport.

The city chose to integrate Olympic spirit and symbols into its promotional campaigns, staging artefacts from the Olympic Museum in Lausanne as narrative elements linking sport, design and urban life.

In the Milano Home of Design campaign, athletes from Milano-based teams pose in emblematic settings of urban design. From the monumentality of Stazione Centrale by Ulisse Stacchini, to the contemporary design of the canopies by Norman Foster, through to the timeless elegance of the M1 line at San Babila designed by Albini and Helg. The campaign is further enriched with historic objects such as ice skates, hockey sticks and curling stones from the collection of the Olympic Museum in Lausanne.

Milano Fashion Week® Men's Collection selected the Mercato dei Fiori as its location, while the Women's Collection chose the Edicola Quotidiana in Piazzale Lavater. This latter campaign was enriched with historic magazines and the official Art Poster Oasis of Peace by Flaminia Veronesi, on display at Triennale Milano until March 2026.

These initiatives are joined by the upcoming Men's Fashion Week (16–20 January) and the latest Women's Fashion Week (24 February–2 March), which offer new opportunities to highlight the connection between fashion, culture, and the Olympic spirit.

BAM FAIR PLAY 25/26

BAM – BIBLIOTECA DEGLI ALBERI MILANO, A PROJECT BY FONDAZIONE RICCARDO CATELLA

SEPTEMBER 2025 – JUNE 2026

From September 2025 to June 2026, BAM Biblioteca degli Alberi Milano presents BAM FAIR PLAY 25/26, a multidisciplinary project that accompanies the city towards the Games with 70 events. Nature, performing arts and participation become tools to translate Olympic and Paralympic values into collective experiences inspired by the Olympic Charter.

BAM FAIR PLAY 25/26

OPENING

The programme opens with a Performative Land Art Installation that traces the five Olympic rings and the three Paralympic agitos across the lawns of BAM, brought to life by choreographies and collective actions curated by Francesca Colombo, Cultural General Director of BAM, followed by the traditional Back to the City Concert, marking the return to the city after the summer.

A new Performative Land Art event will take place on 8 February 2026, marking the heart of the BAM FAIR PLAY 25/26 programme. The participatory installation is produced in collaboration with the NABA Department of Set Design. The initiative will engage citizens through a call to action on the BAM website, inviting them to reflect on the founding values of the Olympic and Paralympic Games and to share short thoughts that will bring to life the Olympic and Paralympic symbols traced across the lawns of Biblioteca degli Alberi.

PODCAST

An 11-episode podcast curated by BAM in collaboration with Doppiozero tells Olympic and Paralympic values through the voices of writers, journalists, actors, athletes and leading figures from Italian culture. From 5 October 2025, a new episode will be released each week on the BAM website. With the opening of the Games on 6 February 2026, the podcast becomes part of the Olympic and Paralympic Path, accessible while walking among the park's circular forests.

ITALIAN SIGN LANGUAGE WALKS

Between October and February, BAM offers a series of five Italian sign language walks inspired by Olympic and Paralympic values, designed to rediscover nature and the city through an accessible lens. From botany to sport, from a tribute to Dino Buzzati to inclusive walks for the Winter Festival, through to urban explorations leading to the panoramic Belvedere terrace at Palazzo Lombardia.

FESTIVAL STAGIONALI

The BAM Autumn Festival hosted Panique Olympique (5 October), a participatory action by the French group Volubilis, previously presented in Paris, which transforms citizens into protagonists of a large-scale urban performance. The BAM Winter Festival on 21 December celebrates Paralympic values with yoga, inclusive walks, treasure hunts and an artistic workshop led by champion Simone Barlaam.

The programme concludes by celebrating the end of the Cultural Olympiad journey with the engaging BAM Circus – Il Festival della Meraviglia, featuring the performance Möbius by Compagnie XY, and on 21 June, World Music Day, the BAM Summer Festival 2026, with music that brings generations together and moves at a slower pace. Leading bands from Lombardy will perform, offering the public an immersive musical experience.

OLYMPIAN ARTISTS

The programme also includes Olympian Artists, a project of the Olympic Museum in Lausanne, bringing together Olympic and Paralympic athletes who combine sporting practice with an artistic path, creating performances and installations that unite creativity and athletic gesture. At BAM, the featured artists are Egle Uljas, former Estonian sprinter, with a piano concert inspired by Olympic values on 20 October 2025, Alexandra Ianculescu, former Olympic skater, with the drawing workshop “Draw your Olympic City!” on 17 November 2025, and Simone Barlaam, Paralympic swimming champion, with an artistic workshop dedicated to Paralympic winter sports on 21 December 2025, as part of the BAM Winter Festival).

THE OLYMPIC GAMES™ A STORY SPANNING 3,000 YEARS

FONDAZIONE LUIGI ROVATI, MILANO

26 NOVEMBER 2025 – 22 MARCH 2026

Fondazione Luigi Rovati presents a major exhibition tracing the history of the Olympic Games from antiquity to the present day. Curated by an international team, the exhibition places the Greek, Etruscan and Roman Games in dialogue, highlighting shared traditions such as running, wrestling, boxing and chariot racing. At its heart is the celebrated Tomb of the Olympics from Tarquinia, on exceptional display in Milano. Now under the responsibility of the Cerveteri and Tarquinia Archaeological Park (PACT), the tomb was discovered in 1958, on the eve of the Rome 1960 Olympic Games, and takes its name from the sporting scenes decorating its walls.

The exhibition route weaves together the ancient and contemporary worlds to show how the Olympic ideal has crossed the centuries while remaining faithful to its founding values. From Greece, where the Games celebrated peace and unity among cities, to the educational vision of Pierre de Coubertin, father of the modern Olympic Games, the principles of peace, inclusion, excellence and respect emerge as the forces that continue to animate the Olympic spirit today.

THE OLYMPIC GAMES. A STORY SPANNING 3,000 YEARS

Organised into five thematic sections, the exhibition creates an unusual dialogue between ancient artefacts and objects from the modern Olympic Games, revealing the links that connect sport, art and spirituality. Particular attention is given to the theme of inclusion, from the ancient Games reserved for a male elite of free citizens through to the achievement of gender parity at Paris 2024, in a journey that traces the evolution of the Games towards an increasingly universal and shared ideal.

From the Olympic Museum come medals, certificates, torches and sporting equipment belonging to major figures in Olympic history. Among the most iconic pieces are the boxing gloves of Pierre de Coubertin, founder of the modern Olympic Games, and the jersey worn by Usain Bolt (Beijing 2008), displayed in Milano for the first time. These are joined by the ski suit autographed by Alberto Tomba for Nagano 1998 and the costume "Scintille di Passione", worn at the Opening Ceremony of Torino 2006. A dedicated space is devoted to the Olympic torch – from Berlin 1936 to Milano Cortina 2026 – a symbol introduced in 1936 and now a central element of the Games. The most significant memorabilia also includes the racing shoes belonging to Michael Johnson, bearing witness to contemporary athletic excellence.

The exhibition has received the Medal of Representation of the President of the Italian Republic, a prestigious honour awarded to initiatives considered to be of particular cultural, scientific, artistic, sporting or social relevance.

UNA MONTAGNA DI LIBRI

33RD EDITION

CORTINA D'AMPEZZO

6 DECEMBER 2025 – 22 MARCH 2026

Since 2009, Una Montagna di Libri has brought writers, thinkers and journalists from around the world to Cortina. Now a staple of the Dolomites' cultural landscape, the festival transforms the town each year into a laboratory of dialogue and reflection.

In Winter 2025–2026, the festival celebrates its 33rd edition, dedicated to exploring the Olympic and Paralympic spirit on the occasion of the Milano Cortina 2026 Games.

Its central theme, "Faster, Higher, Stronger!"—the historic Olympic motto—becomes the guiding thread of more than 25 events spanning literature, sport, current affairs and the collective memory of the Games.

Alongside major themes in literature and contemporary issues, the festival welcomes exceptional guests: writers such as Andrei Kurkov, who on 4 January will share his testimony from Ukraine, as well as Aldo Cazzullo, Paolo De Chiesa, Cecilia Sala, Antonella Stelitano and Andrea Goldstein.

They are joined by sporting legends and Olympic and Paralympic champions—Deborah Compagnoni, Kristian Ghedina, René De Silvestro and Luca Palla—for conversations that weave together words and lived experience, recounting challenge, resilience and the beauty of athletic achievement.

LA BIENNALE DI VENEZIA – CA' GIUSTINIAN, VENEZIA

7 – 15 FEBRUARY 2026

Ca' Giustinian, headquarters of La Biennale, becomes the House of Creativity with a special edition dedicated to sporting challenge and tradition, in dialogue with the XXV Olympic Winter Games Milano Cortina 2026.

A rich and engaging programme designed for schools, families and citizens celebrates the values of sport and culture. Among the highlights is the collaboration with the Olympic Museum, which brings to the city the "Olympian Artists" initiative, dedicated to Olympic and Paralympic athletes who are also active in the visual arts, music and design. Slaven Dizdarević (SVK), Zeina Rashid (JOR) and Paralympian Simone Barlaam (ITA) will take part in the 17th edition of the Biennale di Venezia's Kids' Carnival, leading creative workshops for children and families.

The Carnival is further enriched by Carnevale in barca, a series of workshops curated by Arzanà and Venti di Cultura designed to introduce participants to historic Venetian boats. The Port Authority offers immersive experiences focused on the great voyages of the Serenissima, while the "Happiness 2.0" project engages older students in a programme encouraging reflection on social media and well-being.

LA VALANGA AZZURRA

DOCUMENTARY BY GIOVANNI VERONESI

PRESENTED AT THE ROME FILM FESTIVAL

FROM 30 DECEMBER 2024 ON RAI 3 AND RAIPLAY

On 7 January 1974, journalist Massimo Di Marco coined the expression “Valanga Azzurra” (blue avalanche) to celebrate a historic achievement. Five Italian skiers took the top five places in a men’s giant slalom World Cup race in Berchtesgaden, won by Piero Gros. Since then, the term has become a symbol of Italy’s great successes in winter sports.

With the documentary La Valanga Azzurra, director Giovanni Veronesi brings that unrepeatable era back to the screen, recounting not only the triumphs of champions such as Gustav Thöni, Piero Gros and Paolo De Chiesa, but also the rivalries, sacrifices and the transformation of skiing from a niche sport into a popular phenomenon.

Created using archival materials and previously unseen testimonies, the film is dedicated to the historic coach Oreste Peccedi.

Premiered at the 19th Rome Film Festival and released in Italian cinemas from 21 to 23 October 2024, the documentary was later broadcast on Rai 3 and RaiPlay from 30 December 2024.

WHAT WE CARRY

MUSEION, BOLZANO

13 NOVEMBER 2025 – 29 MARCH 2026

Museion presents What We Carry, an exhibition that weaves contemporary art together with the core values of the Milano Cortina 2026 Cultural Olympiad: inclusion, sustainability and legacy. Featuring never-before-seen works and research by Sonia Leimer and Christian Kosmas Mayer, alongside an extraordinary collection of 43 Olympic torches from 1936 to 2024, the project explores how the design and symbolism of these objects intersect with themes of power, visibility and cultural legacy. What We Carry evokes the way in which these values are passed from hand to hand, just like the torches themselves, creating a living legacy where art and sport meet.

At the heart of the installation is the large-scale display conceived by Sonia Leimer. It features a fifty-metre-long sculpture in the shape of the infinity symbol, recalling a running track and serving as a pedestal for 42 Olympic torches, on loan from the Olympic Aid and Sport Promotion Project. This dynamic, striking sculptural display transforms the torches into a reflection on continuity and change and on the evolving values of the Olympic Games.

Christian Kosmas Mayer, on the other hand, presents his long-term research project The Life Story of Cornelius Johnson's Olympic Oak and Other Matters of Survival. Here, the first Olympic torch from 1936 is displayed separately from the others within a sculptural installation of its own, creating a dialogue around political, social and ecological rifts.

Curated by Niccolò D'Agati, the exhibition traces the painter's career through an original dialogue with contemporary art, highlighting the link between his vision and the Alpine landscapes that profoundly shaped his poetic language.

The exhibition route, divided into four sections, follows the artist's evolution from Milano to Brianza, through to the landscapes of the Engadin region and Switzerland, where Segantini developed a naturalistic symbolism capable of transforming mountains, valleys and skies into universal metaphors.

Around 100 masterpieces are on display, including paintings, drawings, engravings, photographs and documents, drawn from major Italian and European collections, including the Musée d'Orsay, the Rijksmuseum and the Kunsthaus Zürich.

ONDANCE 8TH EDITION

ARCO DELLA PACE, MILANO

3-7 SEPTEMBER 2025

Now in its eighth edition, OnDance returned to Milano, transforming the city into an open-air stage. Conceived and directed by Roberto Bolle, the event involves more than 30,000 dance enthusiasts from across Italy.

This year's edition is dedicated to the connection between dance and sport, explored through open classes, dance evenings, dance talks and dance shows.

Among the most anticipated moments are the talks with two great Italian athletes: Carolina Kostner and Arianna Fontana, who reflect on the deep link between athletic gesture and choreographic art.

The programme unfolds over five days and highlights the role of dance in promoting wellbeing, healthy lifestyles and personal growth.

New features this year include the Ballo Rosso ball, which runs alongside the well known Ballo in Bianco ball, and the relocation of the event's headquarters to Arco della Pace, the new symbolic setting for the event.

LITERATURE

CORTINA 1956. LE PRIME OLIMPIADI BIANCHE IN ITALIA

On 26 January 1956, Cortina d'Ampezzo came under the world's spotlight. For the first time, Italy hosted the Olympic Winter Games.

For weeks, the Queen of the Dolomites, already a destination for the international jet set, became the beating heart of sport and entertainment, welcoming journalists, television crews, VIPs and athletes from around the world. It was here that RAI broadcast the first ever live television coverage of the Winter Olympics, marking a new era in sports communication.

The Games transformed Cortina. New infrastructure, technological innovation and a surge of urban energy left a lasting mark on the area. Toni Sailer entered sporting legend with three gold medals, Sophia Loren lent her charm as patron, while the international jet set animated the town. It marked the beginning of an unprecedented boom for winter sports in the Dolomites, which from that moment became a global icon of elegance and sporting passion.

The publication entitled "Cortina 1956. Le prime Olimpiadi bianche in Italia" brings together unique documents relating to one of the most important events of the post war period, restoring to the reader the atmosphere of a singular era, that of a "romantic" Olympiad, and the strength of a community that made beauty and hospitality its defining hallmark.

the Municipality of Treviso) and BookCity Milano at the Sormani Library.

In 2026, the programme opens to Europe with presentations at the Italian Cultural Institutes in Paris and Brussels, confirming the project's international resonance.

FAIRPLAY 2025/2026 SEASON

TEATRO SOCIALE DI COMO

SEPTEMBER 2025 – JUNE 2026

From September 2025 to June 2026, Como's Teatro Sociale celebrates the Games with Fairplay, a season dedicated to sports and human resilience. The stage becomes an arena for telling stories of champions and everyday heroes, addressing themes of diversity, gender equality, inclusion, accessibility and sustainability through performances, talks and events.

The programme highlights the value of fairness and healthy competition, welcoming guests and activities that weave together art and sport with Olympic and Paralympic values.

Highlights include Fairplay Day – Sport in Teatro (Saturday 29 November 2025): the theatre will be literally taken over by sport! Athletes, teams and local associations will be able to perform and play inside the Teatro Sociale. The 19th-century stalls, cleared of their seats, will be transformed into a real football pitch, and every space, from Piazza Verdi to the Sale del Ridotto, will be dedicated to sporting activities.

Dance takes centre stage with choreographies inspired by the Olympics: Aliena (7 March) by Katakò Athletic Dance Theatre; OLYMPIADE [trace] (21 April), produced by the Ballet de l'Opéra Grand Avignon for the XXXIII Summer Olympic Games in Paris 2024;

VIA GUGLIELMO PEPE – VIA PIETRO BORSIERI, MILANO

INAUGURATION SEPTEMBER 2025

In September 2025, a mural promoted by Visa in collaboration with the Municipality was unveiled in Milano, between Via Guglielmo Pepe and Via Pietro Borsieri. The artwork adds colour and value to a recently redeveloped urban corner, transforming it into an accessible and inclusive green area. A space for social interaction where art and sport come together to express their most authentic values. The project originated from a street art competition promoted by Visa between March and May 2024, aimed at young artists invited to interpret ideals such as fairness, respect, inclusion, solidarity, courage, determination and equality.

The selected proposal is by Camilla (@skyllowarts), a 20-year-old artist from the Florence Academy of Fine Arts.

The winning artwork, now visible in the heart of Milano, has become a visual symbol of these universal ideals, expressing them through vibrant colours and dynamic lines capable of uniting, inspiring and motivating people both on and off the sporting field. This intervention shows how collaboration between the public and private sectors can give rise to projects that combine urban regeneration, culture and social responsibility, leaving a tangible and inclusive legacy for communities.

EMOZIONE DEI GIOCHI CULTURE THROUGH SPORT

LOMBARDY

MAY 2025 – MAY 2026

A unique journey through sport, art and memory accompanies Lombardy towards Milano Cortina 2026. The initiative, conceived and promoted by FICTS, Fédération Internationale Cinéma Télévision Sportifs, and the Lombardy Region, celebrates Olympic and Paralympic values and the role of women in sport through a programme spread across prestigious venues.

Photographic exhibitions, screenings and talks animate symbolic locations of Lombard culture, creating a dialogue between sport and local communities in the lead up to the Winter Games. The project embraces the full spectrum of Olympic and Paralympic winter disciplines, aiming to disseminate, promote and coordinate sporting culture as a whole through integrated and targeted initiatives. It presents more than 40 audiovisual works from the Library of the International Olympic Committee and the FICTS archive, alongside thematic exhibitions such as Women and the Games and Da Cortina 1956 a Milano Cortina 2026.

Key stops include: Palazzo Lombardia in Milano, Villa Reale in Monza, Accademia Carrara in Bergamo, the Violin Museum in Cremona and Malpensa Airport, with openings featuring direct testimonies from athletes.

All initiatives are free of charge and designed for the public, schools and communities.

SPORT. LE SFIDE DEL CORPO

MART, ROVERETO

1 NOVEMBER 2025 – 22 MARCH 2026

At MART in Rovereto, "Sport. Le sfide del corpo", is currently on show, a major exhibition dedicated to the relationship between art and sport. Curated by Antonio Calbi and Daniela Ferrari, it spans more than two thousand years of art history. More than three hundred works of art, from antiquity to the contemporary period, are on display, in dialogue with documents, trophies, photographs and illustrations. Through eight thematic sections, the exhibition brings together masterpieces from the Mart Collections with significant loans, offering a multidisciplinary vision in which sculpture, painting, advertising, artist video and dance intersect.

The focus of the research is the body, represented by artists of all periods, in action or at rest, in competition or on the sidelines, in its physical and emotional tensions. From the heroes of antiquity to portraits of modern icons, from Olympic athletes to dancers, bodies tell stories of victories and records as well as effort and limits. From wrestlers from the archaeological park of Ostia Antica to champions of the United States national team portrayed in the 1990s by Fabrizio Ferri, from Canova's Damosseno to Umberto Boccioni's studies of the body, from divers filmed by Marzia Migliora through to tourists in the Dolomites captured by Walter Niedermayr, the exhibition stands as a great celebration of humanity.

Also on display are symbolic objects, true sports memorabilia, such as the costumes designed by Missoni for the Italian National Track and Field Team and the bicycles of Gino Bartali, Fausto Coppi, Gastone Nencini and the one with which Francesco Moser set the hour record in 1984.

LAGAZUOI EXPO, CORTINA

17 SEPTEMBER 2025 – 28 MARCH 2026

I limiti non esistono is a cycle of exhibitions dedicated to the art of Fulvio Morella that will connect the symbolic locations of the upcoming Winter Paralympic Games, Milano, Val di Fiemme and Cortina, creating a project that brings together art, inclusion and sport.

The project also involves the participation of other artists invited to engage in dialogue with the spaces and with the theme of inclusion through the experience of art.

THE STAGES

The journey begins at the Museum of Contemporary Art of Cavalese with the exhibition entitled “Le stelle che non ti ho detto”, curated by Elsa Barbieri and Sabino Maria Frassà. Fifteen textile works in “braille stellato” by Morella reinterpret the Braille language, replacing traditional dots with small stars and transforming it into a code that brings together visual and tactile suggestions, where the sky becomes writing and a reflection on existence.

In autumn in Milano, within the institutional spaces of Lombardy Region, the exhibition LUDI – L’arte è un abbraccio opens. Morella’s tactile works, created in wood, metal and braille, enter into dialogue with the inflatables by Franco Mazzucchelli, in a route that reflects on the inclusive power of art and on the theme of play.

The project culminates in Cortina, from 3 January to 28 March 2026, with Cortina di Stelle at Lagazuoi Expo Dolomiti. The exhibition brings together the light sculptures from Morella’s Brailight cycle and the stories of Paralympic athletes selected by FISIP, in collaboration with Lagazuoi SpA and the Municipality of Cortina.

Fulvio Morella, winner of the Alfredo d’Andrade Lifetime Achievement Award 2023 and represented in international collections such as the Braille Museum in Milano and Paris, the Italian Mint, the Kunsthistorisches Museum in Vienna and UNESCO in Paris, has made braille an innovative aesthetic and narrative element.

I LIMITI NON ESISTONO

"Fulvio Morella's works," explains Sabino Maria Frassà, President of Cramum and creative director of the project, "are conceived with the aim of being universal, overcoming perceptual barriers and transforming art into an experience of beauty accessible to everyone. Through multisensory language, they invite reflection on the concept of limits, celebrating inclusion and promoting a shared dialogue."

His creations, similar to enigmatic perceptual puzzles, need to be experienced collectively in order to be fully understood. Each person, with their own individual qualities, contributes to a form of knowledge that is the sum of shared understanding and experience.

In this way, art is transformed into a tool for active participation, capable of engaging everyone and stimulating a collective reflection on the importance of breaking down all barriers.

The project places braille at its centre as a symbol of accessibility and empowerment. Art becomes a bridge between silence and participation, transforming recognised barriers into stimuli and making every cultural space truly inclusive and accessible to all.

CONCERT FOR THE ARRIVAL OF THE OLYMPIC FLAME BOLZANO AND TRENTO

FONDAZIONE HAYDN AND THE ALTO ADIGE MARCHING BANDS

27 JANUARY 2026 – BOLZANO

29 JANUARY 2026 – TRENTO

On the occasion of the passage of the Olympic flame in Bolzano on 27 January 2026, South Tyrolean marching bands and a vertical dance performance will bring the central Piazza Walther to life, accompanying the torch relay and transforming the arrival into a great public celebration.

At the conclusion of the city ceremonies, the Fondazione Haydn from Bolzano and Trento will mark this historic moment with a special concert by the Orchestra Haydn.

On 27 January in Bolzano (Casa della Cultura / Haus der Kultur) and on 29 January in Trento (Teatro Sociale), the Orchestra Haydn will perform in a concert featuring cellist and composer Giovanni Sollima with the extraordinary N-Ice Cello project. This unique restaging will see the artist play an ice cello, sculpted by artist Tim Linhart and symbolising the fusion of art and nature.

CONCERT FOR THE ARRIVAL OF THE OLYMPIC FLAME BOLZANO AND TRENTO

Fondazione Haydn, one of the most authoritative musical institutions in Trentino-Alto Adige, combines tradition and innovation through symphonic music, opera and contemporary dance. It fosters an ongoing dialogue between the local area and the international scene.

The 2025/26 Season, entitled "Una musica d'arte für alle", reflects this vocation through a programme that interweaves past and present. It is guided by the vision of Ottavio Dantone, a sophisticated interpreter of the Baroque and Classical repertoire. Alongside him, principal conductor Alessandro Bonato and directors such as Thomas Dausgaard, Michele Mariotti, Mario Brunello and Gábor Takács-Nagy bring to Bolzano and Trento the experience they have gained on the world's most prestigious stages. Together, they shape a season of the highest artistic calibre.

PICCOLO ORSO E LA MONTAGNA DI GHIACCIO

MUSICAL FAIRY TALE IN A PROLOGUE AND FOUR SCENES

VENEZIA, PORDENONE, REGGIO EMILIA, LUCCA, CREMONA, MILANO, SONDRIO, COMO, LECCO, PARMA, TRENTO, VICENZA, GRANADA AND AVIGNON

29 JANUARY – 4 FEBRUARY 2026

Piccolo Orso e la Montagna di ghiaccio is a new musical fairy tale in a prologue and four scenes. It is a participatory work with singers, mimes and orchestra that raises awareness among young audiences of the issue of glacier melting.

Composed by Giovanni Sollima with a libretto by Giancarlo De Cataldo, it is produced as part of the Fenice Education and Opera domani project, aimed at children and young people aged 6 to 14. The interactive performance (70 minutes), actively involves students in singing, choreography and set design. It is supported by scientific input from the Polar Science Institute (CNR-ISP).

The opera tells the story of two young polar bear cubs who embark on an epic journey through an Arctic threatened by global warming. With the help of unlikely allies, they are reunited and sing to the Mountain, restoring peace and saving their fragile ecosystem. The opera concludes with a message of hope and responsibility: harmony between humans, nature and animals is possible only through respect and collaboration.

VETTE. STORIE DI SPORT E MONTAGNE

PALAZZO BESTA NATIONAL MUSEUM, TEGLIO (SONDRIO)

27 JANUARY – 30 AUGUST 2026

Vette. Storie di sport e montagne is an exhibition dedicated to the mountains and winter sports. It traces their history from the earliest pioneering experiences to the rise of sports tourism, highlighting their social, cultural and environmental implications. The exhibition is structured into three main sections:

- Olympics and winter sports, presented through posters from the Salce Collection National Museum in Treviso and the and the National Mountain Museum of Torino, which illustrate the evolution of skiing from a pioneering endeavour to a popular sport and the emergence of Alpine tourism. This section celebrates Olympic and Paralympic values, evoking atmospheres, episodes and protagonists that have shaped history.
- Olympic women, a section that brings leading female athletes into dialogue with the cultural tradition of Palazzo Besta, long associated with the female figure. Alongside sporting memorabilia, objects from the everyday life of Alpine communities are displayed to highlight the profound social and economic changes linked to the spread of winter sports.
- Sport and mountains: transformations and perspectives, which illustrates the transformation experienced by Alpine communities through photographs and historical artefacts. Winter, once a time of hardship and isolation, becomes a season of hospitality and development. A reflection on the relationship between humans and the environment, and between growth and sustainability.

The itinerary concludes in the Palazzo garden, overlooking the Orobie Alps, with a site-specific installation: paintings by Luca Conca, some created live, enter into dialogue with photographs by Vincenzo Martegani, questioning the human gaze in relation to future environmental challenges.

During the exhibition period, a public programme of meetings, talks and workshops with Olympic and Paralympic athletes, artists and scholars will offer further opportunities for insight and participation.

UN MAGICO INVERNO. BIANCHE EMOZIONI DALLA COLLEZIONE SALCE

SALCE COLLECTION NATIONAL MUSEUM | SANTA MARGHERITA & SAN GAETANO, TREVISO

21 NOVEMBER 2025 – 29 MARCH 2026

The Ministry of Culture, through the Regional Directorate of National Museums of Veneto, presents in Treviso the exhibition entitled “Un Magico Inverno. Bianche emozioni dalla Collezione Salce, curated by Elisabetta Pasqualin from a concept by Sergio Campagnolo and installed across the two venues of the Salce Collection National Museum, Santa Margherita and San Gaetano.

The exhibition forms part of a broader project that also involves the Palazzo Besta National Museum in Teglio, Valtellina. It documents the extraordinary transformation that turned winter from a feared season into a resource and an opportunity for mountain communities, evoking the magic of snow covered peaks, the atmospheres of ski resorts, the evolution of winter sports, the emergence of Christmas markets and moments of celebration at high altitude.

Seventy years after the Cortina Winter Games of 1956 and twenty years after Torino 2006, the exhibition invites visitors to share stories, achievements and values that have shaped the history of skiing and winter sports.

UN MAGICO INVERNO. BIANCHE EMOZIONI DALLA COLLEZIONE SALCE

At the Santa Margherita venue, the historical posters of the Salce Collection take centre stage. A wide selection of well-known and previously unpublished works, many restored for the occasion, is dedicated to winter tourism promotion in the main Italian and international Alpine destinations. The walls of the church display period images that recount the harsh winters of the past, migration from mountain areas, the emergence of winter tourism and the establishment in the Montebelluna area of the Boot District, now known as the Sportsystem.

In the apse, a tribute to Cortina 1956 presents the Olympic Torch, the film “Vertigine bianca” and other images linked to the Games. It recalls that this edition was the first to be broadcast live on television and the first to host the Soviet Union.

The San Gaetano venue, in the Carboni and Grignani Rooms, presents specific thematic focuses:

- an area dedicated to iconic products of the Boot District, such as the Lange signed by Alberto Tomba;
- an in-depth focus on the Olympic Games as a colossal event not only in sporting terms, dedicated to Marco Balich, creator of sixteen Olympic Games ceremonies;
- a space for young creatives featuring posters produced as part of a national competition promoted by the Ministry of Culture;
- a tribute to poster artist Renato Casaro, with the original sketch for Vacanze di Natale on display in his permanent room.

WHITE OUT. THE FUTURE OF WINTER SPORT

TRIENNALE MILANO

28 JANUARY – 15 MARCH 2026

What happens to winter sports when the snow disappears?

Design, architecture and technology engage in dialogue with climate change.

The term “whiteout”, used in the exhibition title, refers to a particular optical effect that occurs at high altitude when the snowy landscape and the sky blend into a single, uniform white, causing very low visibility. This extreme condition becomes the starting point for a reflection on the future of winter sports, in conversation with the world of design.

The exhibition explores the relationship between sporting practices, design and innovation, with particular attention to the impact of the ongoing climate crisis.

The exhibition path is organised into thematic sections offering insights into disciplines, projects, equipment and technologies, with a special focus on sports architecture.

CARNEVALE DI VENEZIA 2026 OLYMPUS – AT THE ORIGINS OF PLAY

VENEZIA

31 JANUARY – 17 FEBRUARY 2026

In 2026, the year of the Milano Cortina Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games, the Venice Carnival shines a spotlight on the universal spirit of play and challenge. Olympus is a tribute to Olympic values and to Venetian tradition: a journey that tells the story of how, among the calli and squares of the Serenissima, performances, acrobatics and competitions were born—spectacles that continue to move us today.

Venice celebrates its history of tournaments, regattas and feats of collective skill, anticipating the spirit of the modern Olympics. From displays of strength to acrobatics, from water challenges to popular games, the city has always transformed competition into spectacle and challenge into celebration.

In 2026, Venice becomes a mirror of the values that unite people: loyalty, passion, courage and inclusion. Every place—from the Arsenale to St Mark's Square, from neighbourhood squares to the islands and the mainland—joins a collective narrative that weaves together art, sport, myth, play and mask.

Olympus is an invitation to believe in the power of imagination, in beauty as creative competition, and in celebration as a universal ritual.

THE PROGRAMME

Venice Carnival Street Show:

Performances spread throughout the calli and squares of Venice, Mestre and the islands.

Parades of allegorical floats: From Dese to Chirignago, Pellestrina, Lido, Marghera, Burano, Campalto, Mestre and Zelarino.

Major traditional events: Commedia dell'arte with international artists, the official Ball at Ca' Vendramin Calergi, the 12 Marie, cultural events, music at the Arsenale and Forte Marghera, and Carnivals of the world in St Mark's Square.

Water show at the Arsenale: A symphony of dance, music and light narrating the myth of primordial play: humanity confronting beauty, limits and dreams—just as in ancient Olympia.

HOST AREAS LOMBARDY REGION

The Cultural Olympiad entrusts culture with the extraordinary task of guiding us towards the future.

The future of Milano Cortina 2026: an unmissable milestone, destined to leave a profound mark on the host areas. And is culture not the most enduring legacy we can rely on?

What we present to Lombardy, to the rest of the country and to the world is a programme of initiatives conceived as a vehicle for Olympic and Paralympic values and, at the same time, as a tool for social transformation and progress. The events that precede and accompany the Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games Milano Cortina 2026 celebrate our many artistic, architectural and natural excellences and the extraordinary mosaic of Lombard arts and knowledge. Our communities and places are powerful cultural attractors, both tangible and intangible. Within the venues and across all the connected realities along the "Olympic route" from Milano to Valtellina and beyond. A heritage of experiences, beauty and stakeholders working in close synergy, open to dialogue and drivers of innovation, have always made Lombardy the standard bearer of a change that generates growth and wellbeing.

Artists, professionals, institutions and cultural organisations with proven expertise are the strongest guarantee for promoting the Games at their best, beyond the competition venues and among people across the host areas.

I am confident that we will be able to open ourselves to the world, grounded in our identity and looking ahead with confidence and the certainty that, once again, we will make a contribution to a more prosperous and sustainable future.

HOST AREAS MUNICIPALITY OF MILANO

Major events increasingly need to be deeply rooted in the countries that host them and in their values. This is even more true for the Olympic and Paralympic Games, for which billions of people are calling ever more strongly for the confirmation of their bond with Peace. Peace means a sharing of ideas, values and experiences that find their most effective synthesis in culture. This is why we want to characterise these Olympic Games through that culture which, in Milano as throughout Italy, is synonymous with welcome, fraternity and sharing.

Giuseppe Sala

MAYOR OF MILANO

THE MOMENT THE SNOW MELTS

CHIHARU SHIOTA

A site-specific installation by Chiharu Shiota (Osaka, 1972) that transforms the agora into an ethereal landscape made of threads descending vertically from the ceiling, among which sheets of paper float, bearing the names of people who have been part of our lives but whom, for various reasons, we can no longer meet. Visitors are invited to take part in the installation by sharing their own thoughts or drawings on the theme. Shiota's suspended snowfall becomes a space for meditation, a place to perceive presence within absence. For the artist, "melting snow represents the final moments of something that is about to end; it is the last echo. It evokes the end of a long silence, the retreat of the cold that once enveloped everything in its tight grip.

Using the fragility of snow as a metaphor, the artist reflects on human relationships and how they inevitably begin and end. The threads, symbolizing these bonds, fade over time, often leaving us with feelings of frustration or sadness. The names written on the paper remind us that even if someone or something has been lost, it will not be forgotten, and the passage of time will eventually lead us toward a new spring.

IL TRENO DI CIOCCOLATO DA GUINNES DEI PRIMATI

The longest chocolate train in the world, created under the guidance of Master Chocolatier Andrew Farrugia, a former world record holder. Conceived in view of the Winter Games Milano Cortina 2026, the project will be an important experience of education and solidarity. By involving schools, consortia and local organisations, The Winter Games Express will become an opportunity to showcase young talent and support charitable initiatives in Italy and Malta, the Master's country of origin.

I AM POSSIBLE

An exhibition that tells the story of how people of all ages with motor, intellectual, social or sensory disabilities achieve fulfilment through sport.

By approaching inclusive sports clubs with her camera, the artist was able to experience the many benefits brought by practising a sporting discipline, from achieving physical and mental wellbeing to expressing one's abilities and developing awareness of one's own body, and extending to the social sphere, with the opportunity to form friendships and strong bonds with coaches.

In this way, human imperfection fades in the effort of a sport in which the person with a disability commits their whole self. The athlete becomes a symbol of resilience, overcoming challenges with courage and passion and pushing beyond personal limits.

FUNDAMENTALS

A cultural project by YesMilano and the Olympic Museum: an artistic installation in a public space that celebrates the foundations of winter sports and the Olympic values of excellence, respect and friendship. Created for the Winter Games, it highlights the four disciplines hosted in Milano – ice hockey, figure skating, speed skating and short track – bringing together sport and art. Through large-scale illustrations, the installation presents key movements, rules, facts and historical figures, as well as the stories of champions, reinterpreting images from the Olympic Museum in a graphic style inspired by Milano's visual culture. The metro station thus becomes a place of discovery within everyday life.

EARTH PIECES MILANO

A participatory concert conceived by Yoshie Kris and Shuta Hasunuma, inspired by Beethoven's Ode to Joy, bringing together people of all backgrounds and abilities. The event will take place during the Paralympic Winter Games Milano Cortina and will feature an open stage for anyone wishing to play together. It represents the second stage of a global project that will culminate in 2030 at the United Nations, promoting inclusion and harmony between people, nature and technology.

HOST AREAS VENETO REGION

The Milano Cortina 2026 Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games represent a major opportunity for the Veneto Region—not only from a sporting perspective, but also culturally and socially.

This global event invites us to share who we are, the value of our communities, and our ability to work together.

The Cultural Olympiad is part of this journey, serving as a concrete tool to accompany the Games by giving space to initiatives that bring together culture, heritage, and sport, and that place both people and places at the center. It is a widespread project that enhances local energies and strengthens the connection between identity, participation, and growth.

Veneto boasts an extraordinary cultural heritage, built over time thanks to the presence of institutions, universities, museums, theatres, libraries, and internationally significant sites distributed across the region. This wealth is not only a legacy of the past but a living resource capable of generating knowledge, innovation, and inclusion. Special attention will be devoted to the areas directly involved in the Olympic and Paralympic events, highlighting their specific features and reinforcing collaboration between public and private stakeholders. All of this is guided by the principles that define Milano Cortina 2026: sustainability, inclusion, and a strong focus on the legacy these Games will leave for future generations.

To all those who will help make this journey possible go my best wishes for their work and the gratitude of the Veneto Region, with the certainty that the Cultural Olympiad will prove to be an added value for our land and for the entire country.

The many cultural actors who, in various capacities, operate in our region have willingly supported—and will continue to support—this Cultural Olympiad, developing throughout Veneto, and particularly in the Belluno area, every possible and desirable synergy to accompany, with the spirit that animates true culture, the vital and inspiring experience of the Olympic and Paralympic Games.

Binding together this vibrant array of cultural offerings will be the two values identified by the Milano Cortina 2026 Sustainability & Legacy Strategy: environmental sustainability and social inclusiveness, in the broadest sense of the term.

My warmest wishes therefore go to all those who will contribute to the realization of this fascinating initiative.

Alberto Stefani

PRESIDENT OF THE VENETO REGION

GRAN PARADISO. FLASH MOB FOR THE ARRIVAL OF THE OLYMPIC FLAME

THE SIXTH CIRCLE

A collective choreographic action conceived for younger generations, on the occasion of the passage of the Olympic Torch. It involves over one hundred participants – including Sharing Training members and students from dance and sports secondary schools – in a large scale dance flash mob. Wearing ski suits, a symbol of group identity and belonging, the performers celebrate the connection between sport, art and participation.

I address you with great enthusiasm regarding the extraordinary opportunity our beloved city will have to host the Olympic and Paralympic Games. It is with immense pride that we will welcome athletes from all over the world, offering them not only a stage of excellence on which to compete, but also a warm embrace from our community.

The Olympic and Paralympic Games are not merely a global sporting event. They also represent an opportunity to celebrate the universal values that unite us as human beings. Sporting spirit, cohesion among athletes and Olympic brotherhood are fundamental principles that we embody here in Cortina d'Ampezzo.

This extraordinary event is not only an opportunity to showcase our natural wonders and our world class facilities, but also to promote social cohesion within our community. Through collaborative projects, social initiatives and cultural initiatives, we will involve every member of our community in the enthusiasm and pride of being part of this historic moment.

The role of Cortina as a driving force behind the Olympic and Paralympic Games cannot be underestimated. For the second time, we will take centre stage in an event whose purpose is to celebrate the greatness of sport and the human values it embodies. This is a recognition of the trust that the international community places in our ability to organise and host an event of such scale and importance.

In conclusion, the Olympic and Paralympic Games in Cortina d'Ampezzo will be far more than a series of sporting competitions. They will be an opportunity to celebrate the unity, diversity and fraternity that make us part of a global community. I am confident that, together, we will make these Games an unforgettable moment for all of us.

AUTONOMOUS PROVINCE OF TRENTO

If culture plays a crucial role in everyday life in fostering the collective growth of individuals, communities and nations, in the same way the Olympic and Paralympic Games play a decisive role in spreading universal values such as peace, cooperation between peoples, equality and inclusion through sport around the world.

The bond between culture and sport has always been a concrete and powerful one. It ensures that sport, long a promoter of virtuous lifestyles and patterns of behaviour, generates culture, contributes to the ethical education of individuals and has an extremely positive influence on the way each of us behaves in society. As we know well, the Olympic and Paralympic Games do not end with competitions on the slopes and in the venues. They are also sustained by parallel events that engage spectators and enthusiasts and highlight the identity and distinctive features of a place, with significant benefits that extend beyond the closing ceremony.

Thanks to its international reach, moreover, the event of the five rings and three agitos is able to convey important messages to every kind of audience, even without the need for supporting events. This is the case with the project "Anelli di congiunzione" and the exhibition "Records", installed in the Gallerie di Tunnels. It is the first of a trilogy that will accompany us to the Games and that presents different aspects of culture applied to sport through multimedia and multisensory experiences. It is a way of making visitors active protagonists. In this sense, the exhibition spaces represent a point of reference for Trentino in promoting sports culture and Olympic values.

Trentino is also delivering a number of other initiatives that further enhance the quality of the cultural offering. I am thinking, for example, of the activities included in "Sport di cittadinanza", the umbrella programme that promotes the values of the Olympic Charter such as fair play, a sense of belonging, shared effort, acceptance of commitment and acceptance of results, whatever they may be. These initiatives, aimed primarily but not exclusively at young people, disseminate across the region the meaning of the Olympiad, what it means to be part of it and the cultural values that sport has always conveyed and that are deeply rooted in Trentino.

Engaging with personal stories, touching the tools, trying out training equipment and learning about certain Paralympic adaptations are at the heart of the museum project. The exhibition presents a scientific interpretation of sporting activity, promoting both disciplinary awareness of STEM subjects, namely science, technology, engineering and mathematics, and the adoption of virtuous behaviours combined with a healthy lifestyle based on physical wellbeing.

HOST AREAS AUTONOMOUS PROVINCE OF BOLZANO

We are drawing ever closer to the great dream of this unforgettable sporting event. A dream which, almost 130 years ago, Baron Pierre de Coubertin brought back to life. This applies not only to our many world class athletes, for whom taking part in the Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games Milano Cortina 2026 may represent the most significant moment of their sporting careers, but also to the people working behind the scenes who make this great celebration of sport possible.

The Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games Milano Cortina 2026 are a unique opportunity to show our land, our home, to the global public. As a region shaped by minorities, Alto Adige has a particular role to play. On one hand, because of our lived multilingualism and, as a result, our cultural diversity. On the other, because of our strong commitment to volunteering and our deep attachment to the region, reflected in our many customs and traditions. These are elements that our many artists, some of whom are internationally renowned, will channel into the numerous works they will create in the spirit of the Olympic and Paralympic Winter Games Milano Cortina 2026.

Let us therefore look forward to what will be fantastic Games, to the great sporting performances we will witness from February 2026 onwards, and let us also celebrate the rich culture that will accompany us on this journey towards Milano Cortina 2026!

DIE AUSTRAGUNGSORTE LAND SÜDTIROL

Wir rücken dem Traum dieses besonderen sportlichen Ereignisses näher – jenem Traum, den Baron Pierre de Coubertin vor fast 130 Jahren neu belebt hat. Er bewegt nicht nur unsere Spitzensportlerinnen und Spitzensportler, für die die Teilnahme an den Olympischen und Paralympischen Spielen Mailand-Cortina 2026 ein Höhepunkt ihrer Laufbahn sein kann, sondern auch all jene Menschen, die mit großem Einsatz hinter den Kulissen wirken.

Die Spiele sind eine einzigartige Gelegenheit, der Welt unser Land zu zeigen. Als Region mit sprachlicher und kultureller Vielfalt übernimmt Südtirol eine besondere Rolle – geprägt von Mehrsprachigkeit, Offenheit, starkem Ehrenamt und tief verwurzelten Traditionen. Auch unsere Künstlerinnen und Künstler lassen sich vom Geist der Spiele inspirieren und tragen dazu bei, dass Mailand-Cortina 2026 nicht nur sportlich, sondern auch kulturell unvergesslich wird.

Freuen wir uns auf außergewöhnliche Wettbewerbe, die uns ab Februar 2026 erwarten, und auf die kulturelle Vielfalt, die uns auf dem Weg dorthin begleitet.

OLIMPIC WINTER GAMES (TM) MILANO CORTINA 1956-2026

The exhibition offers an immersive journey between the Cortina 1956 Games and Milano Cortina 2026.

It presents original posters, period photographs and footage from prestigious Italian and international archives – including the Olympic Studies Centre in Lausanne, the Salce Museum in Treviso, Istituto Luce, Rai Teche and the RSI Centre in Salò – narrating sport and society: from preparations to competitions, from medals to cheering crowds, and the socio-cultural context of the time.

Also on display are the “Essential” Torches of Milano Cortina 2026, a symbol of Italian-made design and innovation.

SARAJEVO OLYMPIC WEEK 2026

An interdisciplinary festival dedicated to the Olympic spirit, weaving together sport, culture, education and sustainability.

The 2026 edition, titled "In the Spirit of Milano Cortina 2026", reactivates the symbolic venues of the 1984 Winter Olympics, connecting Sarajevo's Olympic heritage with contemporary culture and new generations.

The programme, structured into seven thematic days (Opening Day, Sports Day, Culture Day, Green Day, etc.), combines performances, exhibitions, workshops and participatory activities.

CONCLUSION

These pages close with a gaze turned towards the future. The journey you have just experienced tells a shared path, built through the commitment of many organisations that have been able to weave together art, sport and community in a living and open dialogue.

The programme presented here includes the initiatives underway from October to Games Time and currently available for communication. A subsequent edition will include additional proposals and projects currently under development, thereby offering a more articulated and comprehensive view of the entire Cultural Olympiad.

We hope that this first collection of initiatives has been able to inspire new visions and ignite the desire to contribute to a project that combines creativity, territory and shared values. The Cultural Olympiad continues to grow, welcoming ever new ideas and perspectives, in a movement that evolves and is enriched through the participation of all. From visual arts to live performances, from participatory workshops to heritage enhancement projects, each experience adds a voice, a story, a lasting mark. It is within this plurality that culture finds its most authentic strength. The ability to create connections, generate change and build the future.

Culture, like sport, is living energy. A force that unites, inspires and continues to move forward together with those who bring it to life. You too can help build the Cultural Olympiad!
